Iron Ore resources

420. PROF. B. RAMACHANDRA RAO: Will the Minister of STEEL AND MINES be pleased to state:

(a) what are the estimated iron ore resources of the country which have been identified;

(b) whether it is a fact that these are the Sixth largest in the world;

(c) whether any extensive survey was undertaken to explore new iron ore deposits in the country; and

(d) the number of years the iron ore reserves are likely to last assuming a three-fold increase in the number of steel plants in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF MINES (SHRIMATI RAM DULARI SINHA): (a) The estimate of iron ore resources of the country which have identified is 17,678 tonnes;

(b) As per available information, the reserves of iron ore in India are the fourth largest in the World after USSR, Brazil and Australia.

(c) Survey of minerals is a continuous process and during the VIth Plan period new iron ore deposits have also been explored resulting in establishing ment of additional reserve of 1696 million tonnes.

(d) The Sub-Group on Iron ore constituted by Planning Commission is of the view that even if the present level of production is doubled to a level of 80 to 90 million tonnes per year the hematite reserves should last for another 100 years. However, when a fuller exploration of the deposits is done there is the possibility of this estimate of life index being revised upwards.
